Please think about what you are doing. God has been removed from many areas in our lives, where he once was accepted. KLOVE is one resource that came into our area just a few years ago. I listen to KLOVE faithfully. It offers wholesome values, is positive and encouraging, serving communities all across America, paid for by it's listeners! Let us keep our KLOVE!